Machine Card Factory.

GEORGE FABER & SONS respectfully inform the public that they have in operation, at their factory, No. 116 Wood street, a number of Sticking Machines, which enable them to supply, with promptitude, to any extent, orders for Cards of every description—Cotton and Woollen Manufacturers, and Carding Machine builders, will be accommodated on reasonable terms, with a very superior quality, equal to any manufactured in the United States.

The Public are most respectfully referred to the following certificates.

Gentlemen—We are in receipt of your letter of 18th inst., and in reply, have to say that all the Cards purchased by us from your concern, has upon trial, proved to be good; we incline to the opinion that they are superior to any we have bought east of the mountains. Very respectfully,
MOORES & WILSON,
Point Cotton Factory, Wheeling, Va.
To Messrs. G. Faber & Sons, Pittsburgh.
Nov. 21, 1831.

We have had in use, for some time, the Machine Cards manufactured by Messrs. George Faber & Sons, of Pittsburgh, and have no hesitation in pronouncing them equal to any Cards heretofore made use of in our establishment.
JAMES ARTHURS & BROTHERS.

The undersigned have been using, for the last six months, Cards manufactured by G. Faber & Sons, of Pittsburgh, and unhesitatingly say, they are the best they ever worked: they recommend manufacturers to give them a trial for themselves, and believe they will not be disappointed in their quality.
THORNILEY & TOWNSEND.
Fallston, Nov. 22, 1831.

The Card Clothing manufactured by Messrs. George Faber & Sons, which we have in use in our establishment, (the Hope Cotton Factory,) has given the greatest satisfaction, and we feel justifiable in recommending them to others.
SHOENBERGER, WRENSHALL & Co.

The Machine Cards, manufactured by Messrs. George Faber & Sons, Pittsburgh, some of which are in use in the manufactories at Economy, Beaver county, Pa., have given entire satisfaction, and therefore have no hesitation in recommending them to the patronage of the manufacturers generally. Yours, respectfully,
FREDERICK RAPP.

VALUABLE PROPERTY
FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the farm on which he lives, in Washington county, on Pigeon creek, one mile south of Williamsport, on the Monongahela river, to which there is a perfectly level road. This farm contains near 400 acres, the greater part of which is first rate land. There is on the premises a Brick Dwelling House, a Merchant mill, in good repair, a new saw mill, a stone still house, 35 by 40 feet; a salt works is also in operation, and worked to advantage; about 150 acres of land cleared and under good fence. There is on the premises three small tenements for the accommodation of families. This tract is well timbered, and abounds with stone coal and springs of water, both of the best quality.

To a person wishing to embark in a manufacturing business, and possessing capital, this would be a very desirable situation, having the advantage of both water power from Pigeon creek, and banks of the very best coal near to the works, and easy of access, and its vicinity to so navigable a river, where articles of any kind are so cheaply transported to Pittsburgh.

For further particulars, apply to James P. Stuart, Merchant, Wood street, Pittsburgh, or to the subscriber on the premises.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞ A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. J. SUMNER, having discovered an infallible cure for different species of HERNIA or RUPTURE, by an external application of ointment, without inconvenience to the patient; which ointment, prepared only by himself, he now offers for sale to all who are afflicted with the above complaint, being confident of success from the many proofs he has had of its efficacy—likewise, he considers it a duty to give to the public a fair statement of his own case.

For fifteen years he was sorely afflicted with two Ruptures, the pains of which were so severe, that he was compelled to relinquish all active business, wearing a Truss, and keeping himself a long period mostly confined, and had nearly gave up all hope of ever enjoying a comfortable state of health.—In this dilemma he was forcibly struck with the old adage, that there never was an evil without a remedy, and forthwith commenced a series of experiments upon himself, which through Divine Providence resulted in a complete and radical cure. JOHN SUMNER,
No. 139 North Third Street, Philadelphia.

This may certify, That my Son, aged thirteen years, was afflicted with a Rupture for three years, and was under the necessity of wearing the Truss constantly, but without any other effect than a temporary relief, and was effectually cured by Dr. J. Sumner in about three weeks time.
JOHN C. DOUGLAS,
No. 131 South Eleventh street, Philadelphia

This may Certify, That I have been afflicted with a Rupture for between four and five years, and have been effectually cured by Doctor J. Sumner, in about five weeks time.
JOHN VASEY,
Corner of York Road and Coates street, Philada.

I Certify, That I was afflicted with a Rupture for four years, and was effectually cured by the application of Dr. Sumner's OINTMENT, in the term of four weeks. E. WILSON.

I Certify, That my Son David, was effectually cured of a Rupture in three weeks time, of twelve years standing, by making use of Dr. Sumner's OINTMENT. D. COX.

The above Certificates are deemed sufficient, and many others might be obtained, and many references can be given.

ONLY 25 CENTS.

LEE'S UNPARALLELED ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS, price 25 and 50 cents per box—famous for the cure of Bilious and other destructive fevers, obstinate obstructions of the stomach and bowels, giddiness, sickness of the stomach, removing colds, costiveness, &c. &c.

Dear Sir—Having made use of the various Pills in my family, offered to the public for the past five years, and having found your celebrated Anti-Bilious Pills the most efficacious in cleansing the stomach and bowels, removing head-aches, sick stomach, and having used them for several years past, I can have no hesitation in stating, that I believe them, as represented, a most valuable Family Medicine. JACOB SMALL.
Mayor of the city of Philadelphia.

To Mr. Noah Ridgely.

CAUTION.—Please ask for Lee's Anti-Bilious Pills, prepared by Noah Ridgely—and see that his name is on the outside wrapper—no other are genuine. None of Lee's medicines are genuine without the name of Noah Ridgely on them.

Twenty years.—LEE'S ELIXIR has for twenty years, been a most successful medicine, for the cure of colds, coughs, spitting of blood, asthma, consumptions, and other complaints of the lungs and breast, as many of our citizens have certified.

To Mr. Noah Ridgely, of Baltimore.

Dear Sir—I was attacked with a most violent cold, a severe cough, and pains in the breast, which continued to grow worse, during which my appetite failed and my voice altered so much, that it was with the utmost exertions I could pronounce a single sentence louder than breath. I bought and used one phial of your valuable Elixir, which restored me to perfect health. Yours, with respect. J. A. SMITH,
Market street, Fell's Point.

Lee's Worm Lozenges, a certain and powerful remedy for destroying all kinds of worms.

Wonderful Tape Worm! A part of a tape worm passed by a lady 40 years old, which measures 3 feet long, and contains three hundred joints. This worm, with two round worms 13 to 15 inches long, and three fourths of an inch round, expelled from a child not five years old, by the use of Lee's Lozenges, are now to be seen at Lee's Family Medicine Dispensary, No. 63, Hanover street, Baltimore.

Lee's Nervous Cordial, an excellent medicine for all nervous affections, weakness, pain in the loins, back, &c.

Lee's Essence of Mustard! No remedy ever excelled this in curing rheumatism, sprains, bruises, frosted feet, &c.

Lee's Ague and Fever Drops, a never failing cure.

Sir—You are at full liberty to use my name in recommending your Lee's infallible Ague and Fever Drops, as, from repeated trials of them in my family, I have always found those Drops to be truly an infallible medicine, never failing to produce a speedy and effectual cure. Yours, respectfully,
MICHAEL WARNER.

To Mr. Noah Ridgely.

Lee's Sovereign Ointment, warranted to cure the ITCH by one application.

Lee's Genuine Persian Lotion, An excellent medicine for curing tetters, ringworms, prickly heat, &c.

Lee's Indian Vegetable Specific, an effectual cure for the Venereal and Gonorrhœa.

Lee's Tooth-Ache Drops, which give immediate relief.

Lee's Tooth Powder, which cleanses and beautifies the teeth.

Lee's Eye Water, a certain cure for sore eyes.

Lee's Anodyne Elixir, for the cure of head-aches.

Lee's Corn Plaster, for removing and destroying corns.

Hundreds of cases of cures performed by the above truly valuable medicines could be given, did the limits of a newspaper admit of it.

☞ The above highly approved medicines are sold by appointment, by B. A. FAHNESTOCK and CHAS. AVERY & CO., Pittsburgh, who have just received a fresh supply from Baltimore.

POETRY.

From the New Monthly Magazine, for September.

TO THE BLUE ANEMONE.

'And 'tis my faith that every flower
Enjoys the air it breathes,'—WORDSWORTH.

Flower of starry clearness bright!
Quivering urn of colored light!
Hast thou drawn thy cup's rich dye
From the intenseness of the sky?
From a long, long fervent gaze,
Through the year's first golden days,
Up that blue and silent deep,
Where, like things of sculptured sleep,
Alabaster clouds repose
With the sunshine on their snows?
Thither was thy heart's love turning,
Like a censer ever burning,
Till the purple heavens in thee
Set their smile, Anemone!

Or can those warm tints be caught
Each from some quick glow of Thought?
So much of bright Soul there seems
In thy bendings and thy gleams;—
So much thy sweet life resembles
That which feels, and weeps, and trembles,
While thy being I behold
To each loving breath unfold;
Or, like woman's willowy form,
Shrink before the gathering storm;
I could deem thee spirit filled,
As a reed by music thrilled!
I could ask a Voice from thee,
Delicate Anemone!

Flower! thou seem'st not born to die,
With thy radiant purity:
But to melt in air away,
Mingling with the soft spring day,
When the crystal heavens are still,
And faint azure veils each hill,
And the lime-leaf doth not move,
Save to songs that stir the grove;
And all earth is like one scene,
Glorified in waves serene!—
Then thy vanishing should be,
Pure and meek Anemone!

Flower! the laurel still may shed
Brightness round the victor's head;
And the rose in beauty's hair
Still its festal glory wear;
And the willow leaves droop o'er
Brows, which love sustains no more;
But, by living rays refined,
Thou, the trembler of the wind,
Thou, the spiritual flower;
Sentient of each breeze and shower,
Thou, rejoicing in the skies,
And transpierced with all their dyes,
Breathing vase, with light o'erflowing,
Gem like, to thy centre glowing,
Thou the poet's type shall be,
Flower of scent, Anemone!

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

From the New York Courier and Enquirer.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM LIVERPOOL.

By the Georges, Fayles, we have exclusively received Liverpool papers of the 3d September, containing London dates a few hours later than had before reached us, for which we are indebted to the kindness of Capt. Fayles.

There are some further particulars of the situation of Don Pedro, at Oporto. 'Despatches have been received this morning,' says the Liverpool Albion. 'from Oporto, by the Marquis of Palmella, up to the 22d ult., and a letter from Admiral Sartorious. Despatches have also been received by the Conde de Funchal, but they are not of a more recent date than the 18th ult. We understand, that the accounts received by the Marquis of Palmella are by no means unfavorable; but that it will be impossible for the Emperor to do more than act on the defensive unless reinforced. Admiral Sartorious writes in good spirits, and in full confidence, but, we believe, he considers it impracticable to contend with the naval forces of Don Miguel in a collective state, without a reinforcement of at least one large ship. In this respect his desire will soon be complied with.'

A letter, dated Oporto, 21st Aug., has the following:—'Things are looking much brighter than they did. The town is strongly fortified, and the enemy puzzled. If they attack, they must be beaten. A retreat without attacking would be disastrous to them, and to remain idle will not be much better. A strong guerilla party are acting for us on the Coimbra side.

'P. S. The news just now arrived is this: that the enemy are retreating, and our guerillas active and increasing between us and Coimbra; I believe it.'

At Paris they have accounts from Lisbon to the 20th, from which it appears that the ship of the line John VI., which is a very old vessel, had experienced heavy damage, which prevented her keeping at sea without undergoing immediate repair; and that the rest of the squadron, finding themselves too weak to resist an attack of the enemy without the protection of the John, deemed it prudent to follow that vessel into port. On their arrival in the Tagus, the Admiral waited on Miguel, to explain how matters stood, and soon after Miguel went in person to examine the state of the ship of the line, and gave orders that repairs should be immediately commenced, so that the squadron might put to sea in a few days.

The London Times, (the first of the liberal or Whig papers,) makes the following remarks on our President's Veto Message.

'The concerns of the Bank of the United States have hitherto been well managed—its prosperity is admitted, and the benefits which it has conferred on the Union, by giving uniformity and stability to its currency and moneyed transactions, are not disputed. Its notes in circulation do not exceed its capital, and it affords more accommodation to private commerce, than the Bank of England with its more extensive circulation, and its greater means.'

'It must seem difficult, therefore, to persons unacquainted with the electioneering objects of the President, or with the peculiar position of American parties, to consider why the extraordinary step of a veto should be resorted to against the continued existence of this establishment. Nor will they be satisfactorily informed by the Message to the Senate, in which the President states his reasons for disagreeing with the two Houses. The reasons are much more numerous than cogent. In the first place, the President thinks the renewal of the charter premature, while three and a half years of its term are still to run. To this objection, it is well answered by one of the senators, that his Excellency being against all renewals, the time made no difference. Besides, as he expects to be elected President for the next four years, the Charter would expire before its policy could be considered by another Chief Magistrate. The President subsequently speaks against it as a monopoly; and what is curious, gives as a reason for rejecting the renewal of its Charter, that the foreign possessors of its stock might use their power, in case of a war, against the interests of the Union. We need scarcely say that such an objection is chimerical and absurd. The foreigners who would in case of war have their funds in American stock, would be rather more likely to be at the mercy of the Americans, than have Americans at theirs. Their stock would, in fact, be a kind of hostage in the hands of the enemy, and not a means of influencing that enemy.'

Great Compliment.—Strange as it may sound to English ears, it may be truly said of America, that country which was treated with so much supercilious contempt by the Quarterly Review only a few years since—that she has given to the parent State her most popular system of divinity, and her best English lexicon. It is scarcely necessary for us to add that we are referring to Dwight's Theology, and Noah Webster's Dictionary.—London paper.

Seven days later from Europe.

ENGLAND.

The Cholera.—Council Office, Whitehall, Sept. 14.—New cases, 492; died, 162; total cases from commencement, 52,472; total deaths from commencement, 19,047.

The relict of the late Benjamin West, Esq., President of the Royal Academy, died on Wednesday night, at her house in Belgrave street, Belgrave square. This venerable and respected lady died of the prevailing epidemic, after a few hours' attack.

Accounts have been received from St. Petersburgh, dated the 1st Sept., from which it appears that Lord Durham is about to return home from his mission, which there is great reason to hope will prove generally satisfactory. His lordship had applied for his audience of leave, and the Emperor, as a mark of courteous attention, had ordered that the steam boat, appropriated to the use of the Imperial family, should convey Lord Durham to Stettin, after the above mentioned ceremony had taken place.

Charles X. and his family having signified to the King of England his purpose of leaving Great Britain, was informed very courteously that some vessel of the Royal navy would be put at his disposal to convey himself and family to the continent. Subsequently, on the representation as was supposed of M. de Mareuil, the French resident minister, this offer was withdrawn, and the Duchess of Angouleme had proceeded in an ordinary packet boat to Rotterdam.

IRELAND.

The Irish representative prelates in the next session of Parliament will be, the Archbishop of Dublin, and the Bishops of Killala, Ossory, and Clonfert.

Bloody Massacre.—The following brief statement of a dreadful massacre, which took place in Ireland, on the 5th of September, is extracted from the Cork Reporter:

'It appears that the Rev. Mr. Gavan proceeded, a few days since, to value the tythes in the parish of Wallstown, near Doneraile. It was thought necessary, in order to effect the object, that a detachment of the 14th regiment of infantry from Buttevant, and a body of police from the neighboring stations, all under the direction of several magistrates, amongst whom the names of G. B. Low, Esq., Admiral Evans, General Barry, and G. Nagle, Esq., have been returned to us, should be procured. The process of valuation had scarcely commenced when the people to the number of between 12 and 15,000, began to manifest indications of hostility: whilst the authorities on the other side, evinced a determination to resist any attempt that might be made to frustrate the valuation. The people, as they increased in numbers, became more and more resolute and exasperated: stones were thrown at the military; the order to fire upon and charge was given by the magistrates, and an instantaneous and general discomfiture of the unarmed peasantry was the result. The retreating party were met by a company of 'Highlanders,' from Castletownroche, when another conflict ensued, the result of which was that four persons were killed, fifteen badly wounded, and eighteen or twenty made prisoners. The whole country, for several miles round, has been thrown into a state of consternation, and the feelings of the farmers and peasantry are roused to a pitch of fearful excitement.'

After a protracted and anxious inquiry, the coroner's jury brought in their verdict of Justifiable Homicide, on behalf of all the parties who took so fatal a part in this affray.

FRANCE.

In the interior of France, nothing of importance has occurred: a letter of the 12th, from Paris, says, 'The arrival of Joseph Bonaparte in England has caused little sensation at Paris. He is not a man likely to engage in a conspiracy, and is almost forgotten here. The member of the family most spoken of is the son of Louis, but even of him little is known. It is reported, that Joseph Bonaparte is about to proceed to Rome from London; with what truth you probably know. With the exception of himself, the nephew above alluded to, and Achille Murat, the whole family, M. Leon included, are in Rome.'

PORTUGAL.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—We are enabled, through the letters of our own correspondents at Oporto and Lisbon, as also by the Journals of either place, to bring down the current history of Portuguese occurrences at these several points of interest, to the date of the 5th inst. Oporto is now described to be, in consequence of the great industry of Don Pedro, all but impregnable; its garrison numbers about 12,000 men. The Miguelites are very near to it, in force of about 20,000. Some skirmishing has taken place, the advantages of which are variously claimed on both sides; but hitherto no serious assault has been even threatened upon that northern capital.

LISBON, Sept. 4.—Admiral Sartorious has communicated to the foreign consuls here, that the entry of neutral vessels, not laden with warlike stores, will be permitted by the squadron under his command.

GERMANY.

The German papers contain no facts to justify, in any manner, fears for the occurrence of revolt, insurrection, or even of less violent opposition to the will of the Confederation dronounced by the Diet. The Baden Government has dissolved all the committees formed in that Duchy for the relief of Polish emigrants, declaring that those brave but unfortunate refugees should in future be maintained at the expense of the state.

BREMEN, Aug. 30.—The President of the United States of North America has lately dismissed our fellow citizen, M. Wichelsan, who was appointed General Consul for America, in this city, when Washington was President, and has conferred this very lucrative office on an American, Nathaniel Pearce. That this N. Pearce has solicited this post, and come hither, has caused great sensation among our merchants, because several houses have lost large sums by his bankruptcy, and he has paid no composition. He had scarcely arrived here when he was put under arrest by his creditors, and there he is likely to remain for some time, as he has nothing to offer, and nobody will give security for him. Many of our principal merchants have presented an address to the Senate, in which they request it not to recognize Mr. Pearce, because it must be disagreeable to them and to all merchants trading from Bremen to the United States, to lay before this man the certificates, invoices, and papers, relative to their transactions. In compliance with this address, the Senate has refused to recognize the new American Consul, and has sent the necessary communications to Washington.

TURKEY.

VIENNA, Aug. 21.—The accounts from Syria are very unfavorable to the Porte. Ibrahim Pacha is master of the country, having, as generally reported, taken Aleppo by storm. The Turks are said to have made there a desperate resistance, but to have been at length overpowered by the superior numbers and military skill of their adversaries. It is conjectured that the Porte is disposed to negotiate, and that the prudent Ali will not object; the necessity of putting an end to an expensive and ruinous war must be felt at Cairo as well as at Constantinople.

The amount of duties received at the Liverpool Custom House, in the month of August last, was £403,000. In August, 1831, the amount was only £292,000, being an increase on the corresponding month last year of no less than £111,000.

Mr. Rothchild stated before the Committee of the House of Commons, that he buys bills, on foreign houses, to the amount of £80,000 or £100,000 per week; and he received in the year 1824, in two months, to the amount of £1,500,000.

A melancholy accident happened at Cherbourg, France. A boat, belonging to the Ariane, with 25 men on board, was upset in the channel, and 15 of the men were drowned.

The population of Warsaw, which, before the 29th of November, 1830, amounted to 150,000 souls, at the beginning of August last, was reduced to 60,000.

Interesting from Portugal.—A gentleman in this city received a letter from Oporto, by the last arrival, from one of the most respectable individuals in that place, the substance of which he has communicated to us. The letter is dated the 26th of August, and it states that Don Pedro's case is entirely hopeless. He says the only chance of success the Ex-Emperor ever had was in advancing at once, as soon as he had effected a landing, which is lost to him; but now the people cannot be roused in his favor, as no rising has taken place in any part of the country as was confidently anticipated. The writer adds, that the first engagements which took place, were merely feints on the part of Miguel's forces, to draw him out and get him into the interior. If he should now advance, he will have to pass through an impoverished district of country, in which it will be impossible for him to get provisions sufficient for his forces, and it will be utterly impossible for him to return, as a retreat would be effectually cut off. As evidence of the truth and sincerity of these statements, we will merely say, that the writer is entirely opposed to Miguel and his misrule.

The letter from which the above opinions are gathered, farther states, that Don Miguel has notified the Oporto Wine Company, that he shall exact from them, on obtaining repossession of the place, the repayment of all the export duties on wines which may be made to Don Pedro under his usurped administration.—New York Gazette

Loss of Ships.—From an examination of Lloyd's lists; from the year 1793 to the commencement of 1829, it has appeared that the number of British vessels alone lost during that period amounted, on an average, to no less than one and a half daily. We learn from Morceau's tables that the number of merchant vessels employed at one time in the navigation of England and Scotland amounts to about 20,000 having, one with another, a burden of 120 tons. Out of 551 ships of the royal navy of England, lost to the country, during the period above mentioned, only 160 were taken or destroyed by the enemy; the rest having either stranded or foundered, or having been burnt by accident; a striking proof that the dangers of naval warfare, however great, may be far exceeded by the storm, the hurricane, the shoal, and all the other perils of the deep. During the last great war in Europe, 32 British ships of the line went down to the bottom in the space of 22 years, besides 70 fifty gun ships, 86 frigates, and a number of smaller vessels. The navies of the other European powers, of France, Holland, Spain, and Denmark, were almost annihilated, during the same period; so that the aggregate of their losses must have many times exceeded that of the Kingdom of Great Britain. These numbers, we believe, very far exceed what most people would have supposed. To this immense loss of ships of war and of commerce the imagination must be left to supply the incalculable amount of wealth swallowed up with them, and the thousands of human beings who thus found a watery grave.

PAPER MAKING.

In nothing has human ingenuity exerted itself more successfully, or more usefully, than in making paper. That a beautiful, bleached, tough, and elastic sheet, a yard square, should be produced for one cent, is a result surpassed by nothing in the arts. When we consider that this sheet is better suited to receive the impression of types, than the most costly fabrics, and so, with all its cheapness, becomes the theatre of the most splendid mental efforts,—and that through its instrumentality the power of reason is subduing all other powers, we perceive its usefulness. The process of paper making has been greatly expedited by recent improvements. A few years ago, after the rags had been ground and the pulp prepared, the process of reconstructing was as follows: 'One man dipped a mould into the vat, on which he took up the material of a sheet; another man emptied the sheet upon a piece of felting; the felings were then pressed, which produced so much consistency that the sheets could be removed and hung upon poles to dry,' &c. &c. A few years ago, a machine was invented which, by means of a cylinder coming in contact with the pulp, rolled off the sheet in an endless web, which being wound upon another cylinder until a sufficient quantity had accumulated, was cut through with a long knife in the direction of a radius from the centre, and thus the sheets were ready to hang up and dry as before. The machine reduced the price of paper perhaps 15 or 20 per cent.; but the work was not well done, particularly because the fibres being all drawn in one direction, the paper had, one way, hardly any strength. This has been remedied by subsequent machinery. The reeling cylinder has been transformed into a drying cylinder, which also answers as a callinder, forms a fine surface, and saves all the operations of the dry room. Hard by the callinder is placed a pair of shears, which, working in concert with the other parts of the machine, clip the web into sheets as it is drawn out. So that now almost the whole labor is saved, as well as half the house room. The manufacturer has but to hoist his gate, and the web is drawn out, dried, callindered, and lies piled up in sheets, all within the space of a few yards. These inventions have taken off another 15 or 20 per cent., from the price. So great has been the effect of machinery invented within five years, that the paper we now use, tho' one quarter larger, costs a quarter less than that we used in 1827. We are sorry to add, as the winding up of so good a story, that this saving does not remain in our pockets, but all goes to the community in newsboats, expresses, correspondences, and for other things which nobody ever thought of until this wonderful age of improvement and cheapness.—N. Y. Jour. of Com.

We notice, in the Upper Canada papers, an advertisement from Mr. James Robinson, superintendent of the new 'City of the Falls,' near the Cataract of Niagara, requesting tenders for the delivery of 150,000 feet of lumber; for quarrying building stones, brick, lime, sand, cut stone, shingles, carpenter and mason work of cottages, pump room baths; and for embanking, sinking, and conducting water from springs, and hydraulic apparatus for raising the same to supply the city. We are pleased to see this commencement of operations on the part of the spirited projectors, and trust that their magnificent undertaking will be crowned with the most ample success.—National Gazette.

We observe that the Indian Queen Hotel and Baltimore House, lately occupied by Mr. Beltzhoover, who has removed to the Fountain Inn, is about being opened by Captain Reuben Newcombe, who, we learn, is originally from N. York, and last from Savannah. We understand that Capt. Newcombe has had long experience in his line of business, has a well established reputation as a Hotel Keeper, is highly esteemed and popular in the city of Savannah, where he kept the Washington Hall, one of the largest class of Hotels, and after its destruction by fire, the Mansion House, in the same city. We have no doubt, from what we have heard, that Capt. Newcombe will be an acquisition to our city. The Hotel is now under repair, and will soon be ready, we are informed, for the reception of guests, with entire new and elegant furniture. We are likewise informed that preparations are making to enlarge the Hotel by new and extensive buildings, with other improvements, calculated to add celebrity to this finely situated and favorite Hotel, and further to contribute to render our city in Hotels second to none in the country.

The Fountain Inn, under the plastick hand of Mr. Beltzhoover, has assumed a new form, and has been enlarged and renovated in every department. It is now one of the most convenient and compact establishments, and affords, with the known assiduity and capability of the proprietor, every inducement to the traveler to prolong his visit in Baltimore.—Gazette.

U. S. Bank stock was in demand in N. York, on Wednesday, (3d inst) and sales were made at $120. The N. Y. American very justly observes that, "The funds or stocks of a nation, usually constitute a pretty accurate political thermometer. In that sense, the rise in, and demand for U. S. Bank Stock may be taken to indicate very decidedly, a growing conviction that President Jackson will not be re-elected."—Boston Daily Atlas.

1796. President: Adams 71, Jefferson 68. Vice President: T. Pinckney 58, A. Burr 50.

1800. President: Jefferson 73, Adams 64. Vice President: A. Burr 73, T. Pinckney 58.

1804. President: Jefferson 162, C. C. Pinckney 14. Vice President: G. Clinton 162, Rufus King 14.

1808. President: Madison 152, C. C. Pinckney 47. Vice President: G. Clinton 118, Rufus King 47.

1812. President: Madison 127, De Witt Clinton 89. Vice President: E. Gerry 128, Ingersoll 58.

1816. President: Monroe 183, Rufus King 34. Vice President: Tompkins 113, opposition scattering.

1820. President: Monroe 281, no opposition except one vote given from New Hampshire. Vice President: Tompkins 218, opposition divided.

1824. President: Andrew Jackson 99, J. Q. Adams 84, Wm. H. Crawford 41, Henry Clay 37.

1828. President: Andrew Jackson 178, J. Q. Adams 83. Vice President: J. C. Calhoun 173, Richard Rush 83.

We find in the Savannah Georgian, of the 2d inst., this notice.—Nat. Gaz.

"Land and Gold Lotteries.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that our energetic Governor has issued his proclamation, informing the good people of Georgia, that the drawing will commence on the 22d of October."

The lotteries are of the Cherokee country and mines—the spoils of power and cupidity. O excellent and magnanimous Christians and Republicans! The reply of President Jackson to the memorial of the American Board of Missions, in relation to the confinement of the Missionaries by Georgia, was, according to the official report of the Board, simply "that, as Georgia had extended her laws over the Cherokees, the various acts of Congress providing a mode of proceeding in such cases (as that of the Missionaries) inconsistent with the State laws, became inoperative, and that he, therefore, had no authority to interfere!"—Here is an acknowledgment and sanction of practical Nullification. A State has but to pass laws inconsistent with Treaties of the United States, and acts of Congress, and the latter become inoperative, and the President's authority to cause them to be executed, null.—Nat. Gaz.

* By a public notice from the Department of War, thousands of pension applicants remain unacknowledged.

† The Second Comptroller left Washington without any person being authorised to attend to his duties, in consequence of which no accounts could be passed; no warrants could be signed for three weeks.—U. S. Tel.

The National Intelligencer gives the Proscription List of Jacksonism. It enumerates removals of Diplomatic Ministers, Consuls, Collectors, Marshals, Attorneys, Registers, Receivers, Postmasters, Clerks, &c. &c. Appended to the Proscription list is the list of rewarded editors, amounting to fifty-seven. Twenty members of Congress have been appointed to offices by Gen Jackson.—Nat. Gaz.

The Jackson vote in the house of delegates last year was 21, the exact number they now have, and no county to hear from in which they have the slightest prospect of success, except Alleghany, which may, possibly, be divided. Harford county was lost to the Clay party from the operation of local causes, which will not affect the vote in November for electors. The three Clay electors on the Eastern Shore will succeed by a majority of at least 500; and the four from the upper district by probably more than 1000 votes; so that it is impossible for more than three Jackson electors to be chosen; two from Baltimore city, and one from Baltimore county. But we expect to contest "every inch and every hair's breadth" of this ground. They must work for what they get.—Baltimore Chronicle, October 5.

The result of the recent election in Pennsylvania, is conclusive that, if the elements of opposition are united on the electoral ticket, Gen. Jackson will lose the vote of that State. We regret to see, in Poulson's Advertiser, a communication, which indicates a determination on the part of Mr. Clay's friends to continue the electoral ticket nominated by the National Republicans. Mark what we say—and we speak from sources of information which are to be relied on—that the vote of Pennsylvania will be given to Jackson, unless the opposition unite on the Anti-Masonic electoral ticket. Although our preference for Mr. Wirt has been fairly and candidly expressed in the Telegraph, we conceived it inexpedient to introduce the question of anti-masonry into our Extra Telegraph; the consequence has been, that an impression that we prefer Mr. Clay, has, to a considerable extent, prevailed, and we have received many and very decided letters from the anti-masons in New York, as well as in Pennsylvania, who unite in declaring their determination to adhere to Mr. Wirt, at all hazards. The question for Mr. Clay's friends in Pennsylvania is, not Clay or Jackson; but it is Wirt or Jackson. If General Jackson is re-elected, they will be responsible for it. It is not for us to advise, but we claim the privilege of speaking truth.—U. S. Tel.

Adam King, the representative from York county, and the only member of Congress in the Pennsylvania Delegation who voted against the bill to recharter the Bank of the United States, has lost his election. The people have vetoed him.

New Jersey.—It is very confidently reported that Morris has returned a full anti-Jackson ticket. Should this be the case, and Gloucester, as confidently anticipated, return as she did last year, anti-Jackson men, it is highly probable that the majority in the Legislature will be anti-Jackson.—New Jersey Paper.

Newark, Oct. 12.—We have received verbal intelligence from the lower part of the state, this morning, which leaves very little doubt that we shall have a majority of ten or twelve in joint meeting. All the counties below Trenton have elected our tickets, and Morris has done the same. From Monmouth, Sussex and Warren we have no accounts, but if they go solid for Jackson, we still have the majority. Our majority in Old Essex will be from 1,200 to 1,600. New Jersey is safe: she will go for Clay and the Constitution in November beyond a doubt.

In Georgia, the Union party are said to have succeeded in the election of their whole Congressional ticket. The nullifiers, with Judge Clayton at their head, appear to have been left far in the rear.

President Jackson is styled the second Washington. If the Father of his Country should rise from the dead, would he be willing to be called the first Jackson.—Nat. Gaz.

WASHINGTON HALL
STAGE OFFICE,

Sign of the Golden Lamb, Market Street,

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO.

THIS Large and Commodious House, formerly kept by George A. Dohrman, adjoining the public square, has undergone a thorough repair: it now contains thirty rooms, and several fine parlors for families, and is fitted up with entire new furniture.

The subscriber now offers his best efforts to afford comforts to all who may please to favor him with their custom, and assures the public that his Bar and Table will be well supplied, and his stable, which is large, will be attended by a careful and attentive hostler, and his charges reasonable.

There is a Daily Line of Stages which leaves this house for Ashtabula, on lake Erie, by way of Knoxville, Wellsville, Lisbon, &c., of first rate houses and coaches—there is also a fine line of four horse mail coaches leaves here for Zanesville, by the way of Cadiz and Cambridge, every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and also one for Wooster, by the way of Philadelphia; and one for Cleaveland, by the way of Canton, every Thursday; also, a daily line to Pittsburgh, after the arrival of the Mail Boat from Wheeling, equal to any for good coaches, houses, and careful drivers.—Travelers going any of the above routes will do well to come this way, as I flatter myself they will not be disappointed. Seats may be taken at this office for any of the above lines. Passengers coming in the Pittsburgh or Wooster lines, will be brought to this house, by giving directions to the drivers. N. HUTCHINS.

DR. HEINZELMAN'S
Late Improved Truss.

THOSE laboring under the distressing and dangerous disease Hernia, (Rupture,) are respectfully informed that the above improved Gum Elastic Pad Truss, for which there has been letters patent granted by the President of the U. States, exceeds every instrument of the kind heretofore offered to the public. The high commendations already bestowed, and universal satisfaction given to those afflicted, affords the fullest proof to those wishing effectual and certain remedy for the same, adapted to the different species of this disease, to which male, female, and children are subject.

As regards the true surgical principles of a proper constructed Truss for the radical cure of Hernia, together with cleanliness (as it can be re-covered by the patient himself with a piece of silk or linen) and durability with elegance of execution, he feels satisfied of rendering general benefit to the afflicted, as the correctness upon which it is constructed being abundantly tested by experience, having also submitted the above instrument to the inspection of several medical gentlemen of great experience and character, all of whom concur in forming an exceedingly favorable opinion of the simplicity of construction and limited motion, graduated to the different attitudes and permanency of location on the body, as the central elastic projection on the concave disk of the pad, as well as its vertical spiral spring appearing to them an improvement that will be found valuable in the management of Hernia, and cannot fail to meet with the approbation of the profession.

Among those, he takes pleasure in referring to

Pittsburgh Seminary
FOR YOUNG LADIES,

South East Corner of Grant & Second Sts.

THE want of a permanent institution, located in the city, in which females should receive a useful and finished education, seems long to have been deeply felt by the inhabitants of this flourishing and wealthy city.

From the frequent and earnest solicitations of her friends, Miss Parry has, at length, undertaken to establish and carry into effective operation an Institution calculated, not only to supply the deficiency for which it is more immediately intended, but to offer such advantages as may render it worthy the patronage of the intelligent citizens of neighboring places.

The object of this seminary is to inculcate sound principles, inform the mind, refine the taste, and form the character; to effect this, there will be a strict and well-ordered system of government as well as of instruction: for little can be accomplished in the great business of education without efficient regulations and good order.

The building is spacious and handsomely situated in the most elevated and healthy part of the city, commanding a fine view of the Monongahela, and the adjacent hills. It is sufficiently central for the convenience of day scholars, and yet retired from the noise of business.

In the English department the branches are Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Composition, Geography, and Astronomy, with the use of the Globes, History, Chronology, Botany, Chymistry, Rhetoric, Natural and Moral Philosophy.

English branches,	$8 00 per qr.
(Each qr. to consist of 12 weeks.)
Music,	10 00
French,	8 00
Drawing in pencil, crayon, and water colors,	8 00
Oil Painting,	10 00

Boarding and tuition, including all the branches, two hundred dollars per annum. Each pupil must be supplied, by the parent or guardian, with a mattress, bedding, towels, combs, brushes, soap, and silver cup, table and tea spoon, with the initials of the name engraved on each. Each pupil required to repair and keep her own clothes in good order. Washing, stationery, &c. are extras. No charge made for the summer vacation, commencing on the twenty-third of July, and terminating on the thirty-first of August. No pupil engaged for a shorter period than two quarters; first quarter to be paid in advance. One month's notice to be given previous to withdrawing a pupil.

The Rev. Dr. Bruce, President of the Western University, and Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy in that Institution, will give lectures on Astronomy. Competent masters are engaged for the different branches.

SCHEME.

1 prize of	$25,000 is	$25,

☞ As an editor in this city has recently undertaken to palliate or explain away the offence of Aaron Burr, we have thought that some of our readers would be pleased to read an account of his conduct, as given at the time of his trial.

Mr. Wickham, one of his counsel, had contended that, "Because Aaron Burr was not actually and personally present on Blannerhasset's Island, at the very time of the assemblage, he could not be a principal in the treason."

In reply to this argument, William Wirt having shown, first, that in Law he must be considered as the principal, and that he could not be considered an accessory, proceeded in the following eloquent strain, to show that he was the author and the instigator of this scheme, and that the unfortunate Irishman Blannerhasset was the victim of his arts.

Extract from the Speech of William Wirt, on the Trial of Aaron Burr.

'Having ascertained that the prisoner can, in no view of the law, be considered as an accessory in this case, let us enquire whether he can be so considered in reason.

'A plain man who knew nothing of the curious transmutations which the wit of a man can work, would be very apt to wonder by what kind of legerdemain Aaron Burr had contrived to shuffle himself down to the bottom of the pack as an accessory, and turned up poor Blannerhasset as a principal in this treason. It is an honor, I dare say, for which Mr. Blannerhasset is by no means anxious; one which he has never disputed with Col. Burr, and which I am persuaded he would be as little inclined to dispute on this occasion as on any other. Since, however, the modesty of Col. Burr declines the first rank, and seems disposed to force Mr. Blannerhasset into it, in spite of his blushes, let us compare the cases of the two men, and settle the question of precedence between them. It may save a good deal of troublesome ceremony hereafter.

'Who then is Aaron Burr, and what the part which he has borne in this transaction? He is its author, its proprietor, and its active executor.—Bold, ardent, restless, and aspiring, his brain conceived it; his hand brought it into action. Beginning his operations in New York, he associates with him men whose wealth is to supply the necessary funds. Possessed of the main spring, his personal labor contrives all the machinery. Pervading the continent from New York to New Orleans, he draws into his plan, by every allurement he can contrive, men of all ranks, and all descriptions. To youthful ardor he presents danger and glory; to ambition, rank and titles and honors; to avarice, the mines of Mexico. To each person whom he addresses, he presents the object adapted to his taste; his recruiting officers are appointed; men are engaged throughout the continent; civil life is indeed quiet upon its surface: but in its bosom this man has contrived to deposit the materials with which the slightest touch of his match produces an explosion to shake the continent.—All this his restless ambition has contrived; and in the autumn of 1806 he goes forth for the last time to apply this match. On this excursion he meets with Blannerhasset.

'Who is Blannerhasset? A native of Ireland, a man of letters, who fled from the storms of his own country to find quiet in ours. His history shows that war is not the natural element of his mind; if it had been, he would never have exchanged Ireland for America. So far is an army from furnishing the society natural and proper to Mr. Blannerhasset's character, that, on his arrival in America, he retired even from the population of the Atlantic states, and sought quiet and solitude in the bosom of our western forests. But he carried with him taste, and science, and wealth; and, "lo, the desert smiled." Possessing himself of a beautiful island in the Ohio, he rears upon it a palace, and decorates it with every romantic embellishment of fancy. A shrubbery, that Shenstone might have envied, blooms around him; music, that might have charmed Calypso and her nymphs, is his; an extensive library spreads its treasures before him; a philosophical apparatus offers to him all the secrets and mysteries of nature; peace, tranquillity, and innocence shed their mingled delights around him; and, to crown the enchantment of the scene, a wife, who is said to be lovely even beyond her sex, and graced with every accomplishment that can render it irresistible, had blessed him with her love, and made him the father of her children.—The evidence would convince you, sir, that this is only a faint picture of the real life. In the midst of all his peace, this innocence, and this tranquillity, this feast of the mind, this pure banquet of the heart—the destroyer comes—he comes to turn this paradise into a hell—yet the flowers do not wither at his approach, and no monitory shuddering through the bosom of their unfortunate possessor warns him of the ruin that is coming upon him. A stranger presents himself. Introduced to their civilities by the high rank which he had lately held in his country, he soon finds his way to their hearts by the dignity and elegance of his demeanor, the light and beauty of his conversation, and the seductive and fascinating power of his address. The conquest was not a difficult one. Innocence is ever simple and credulous; conscious of no designs itself, it suspects none in others; it wears no guards before its breast; every door, and portal, and avenue of the heart is thrown open, and all who choose it enter. Such was the state of Eden when the serpent entered its bowers. The prisoner, in a more engaging form, winding himself into the open and unpractised heart of the unfortunate Blannerhasset, found but little difficulty in changing the native character of that heart, and the objects of its affection. By degrees he infuses into it the poison of his own ambition; he breathes into it the fire of his own courage; a daring and a desperate thirst for glory; an ardor panting for all the storms, and bustle, and hurricane of life. In a short time the whole man is changed, and every object of his former delight relinquished. No more he enjoys the tranquil scene; it has become flat and insipid to his taste; his books are abandoned; his retort and crucible are thrown aside; his shrubbery blooms and breathes its fragrance upon the air in vain—he likes it not; his ear no longer drinks the rich melody of music; it longs for the trumpet's clangor and cannon's roar; even the prattle of his babes, once so sweet, no longer affects him; and the angel smile of his wife, which hitherto touched his bosom with ecstacy so unspeakable, is now unfelt and unseen. Greater objects have taken possession of his soul; his imagination has been dazzled by visions of diadems, and stars, and garters, and titles of nobility; he has been taught to burn with restless emulation at the names of Cromwell, Cæsar, and Bonaparte. His enchanted island is designed soon to relapse into a desert; and in a few months we find the tender and beautiful partner of his bosom, whom he lately "permitted not the winds of " summer "to visit too roughly," we find her shiffering at midnight, on the winter banks of the Ohio, and mingling her tears with the torrents that froze as they fell. Yet this unfortunate man, thus deluded from his interest and his happiness—thus seduced from the paths of innocence and peace—thus confounded in the toils which were deliberately spread for him, and overwhelmed by the mastering spirit and genius of another—this man, thus ruined and undone, and made to play a subordinate part in this grand drama of guilt and treason—this man is to be called the principal offender: while he, by whom he was thus plunged and steeped in misery is comparatively innocent—a mere accessary. Sir, neither the human heart nor the human understanding will bear a perversion so monstrous and absurd; so shocking to the soul; so revolting to reason. O! no, Sir. There is no man who knows any thing of this affair, who does not know, that to every body concerned in it, Aaron Burr was as the sun to the planets which surround him; he bound them in their respective orbits, and gave them their light, their heat, and their motion. Let him not, then, shrink from the high destination which he has courted; and having already ruined Blannerhasset in fortune, character, and happiness forever, attempt to finish the tragedy by thrusting that ill fated man between himself and punishment.

Upon the whole, Sir, reason declares Aaron Burr the principal in this crime, and herein confirms the sentence of the law.'

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1832.

CORRECTION.—In our returns of the county election, in our last, we transposed the names of some of the candidates for the Assembly, so as to produce an error in the aggregate votes for Messrs. Hultz, Scott, Bayne. We have placed those names in the above order; they should have stood thus: Bayne, Hultz, Scott. Thus, giving Mr. Bayne 3535; Mr. Hultz, 3508; Mr. Scott, 3434.

☞ NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT HARRISBURGH.—We have not yet heard the result of the proceedings of this body. We have no doubt, however, that they will agree to support the Wirt Electoral Ticket.

☞ CHOLERA.—Reports are rife that this disease has reached our city. We have made diligent enquiry, and are satisfied that the reports are entirely unfounded.

General Jackson's pet [Eaton] seems to be in bad odour at home. Sixteen ballotings for Senator in the next Congress were made, in the Legislature of Tennessee, on the 5th instant, in which the vote was as follows:

For Foster, - -	22
Grundy, -	21
Eaton, - -	15

GOVERNOR WOLF.—It seems that this gentleman is re-elected, by a small majority, and it is almost certain that this majority was secured by one base trick.—A letter, purporting to have been written by Mr. Ritner, was distributed, a few days before the election, in all the counties along the branches. In this letter, Mr. Ritner is made to say that, if he should be elected, he would consider his success as a distinct declaration, by the people of the State, against the Branch Canals, and that he would act accordingly. This one forgery deprived him of as many votes in the counties of Venango, Crawford, Mercer, Erie, Lycoming, and Union, alone, as gave Mr. Wolf the majority. It is greatly to be lamented that the yeomanry of the country should be thus misled in the exercise of the right of suffrage. We believe it may be very confidently asserted, that in no previous contest, in this commonwealth, has any party descended to such base practices, as did the Wolf party in that which has just passed.

If Governor Wolf adopts the Jacksonian policy—'rewarding his friends,' the fabricator of this base forgery should be appointed Secretary of the Commonwealth: and that fellow [McLaughlin] who swore that Mr. Ritner gave his sister a copy of 'Lewis' and Clarke's Journal,' (five years before it was printed,) should be made keeper of his Excellency's conscience.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.—On Friday, November 2d, the yeomanry of this commonwealth will be called upon to choose Electors of President and Vice President. We trust that the friends of Wm. Wirt will come forward to this new contest with renovated vigor and spirit. As to the Anti-Masons, we know that, to them, words of encouragement are unnecessary; they, we are sure, will be disheartened by no disappointment; they will be discouraged by no defeat. Of them it was well said, by Col. Stone, that they gather strength alike from victory and defeat. As to that portion of the National Republicans who have no ulterior designs, nothing in view but the welfare of their country, we will remind them that, in 1828, Gen. Jackson's majority was upwards of fifty thousand; that, in 1829, Mr. Wolf's majority was almost twenty-seven thousand, and that, on the 9th inst., his majority was only 2700; and that even this majority, small as it is, was obtained by a base fabrication, in anti-Jackson counties, such as Beaver, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie. We will remind them that Mr. Ritner's defeat arose, not from his opposition to Gen. Jackson, but from an alleged opposition to Internal Improvements. As evidence of this, we will state that, in Philadelphia city, Mr. Binney had a majority exceeding twenty-one hundred, while Mr. Ritner had only fourteen hundred. In Fayette and Green, Mr. Stewart, (anti-Jackson,) was elected to Congress by a handsome majority, whilst the same counties gave a majority of three hundred against Mr. Ritner.

To the friends of a sound currency, of an independent judiciary, of a responsible and competent executive, we say, come forward, let us give one united effort in favor of that pure, able, and upright man, Wm. Wirt. Jacksonism is on the wane, and the whole history of the politics of our country, proves that, when the tide once sets against a man, its force is irresistible, and his downfall is certain and speedy.

A SUGGESTION TO THE FRIENDS OF THE BRANCH CANALS.—Suppose a proposition should be made, at the next session of the Legislature, to double all the taxes in this Commonwealth; do you think it would receive any countenance by any respectable number of the members of either house?—Well, if it is once ascertained that the Bank of the United States must wind up its concerns, money must grow scarcer and more valuable; all other property will depreciate, and a tax of one dollar will then, actually, be more burdensome and oppressive than one of two dollars now is. So that the destruction of the Bank will, in substance, be the very thing which our legislature would reject by a unanimous vote. Nay, it is a great deal worse. If the taxes were doubled, in the present prosperous condition of our country, the amount brought into the treasury would be doubled. But, by the destruction of the Bank, the burthen of the taxes would be doubled, while the revenue, owing to the difficulty of collection, would probably be reduced. To the friends of the Branches it is then a matter of serious consideration, whether they will be able to get any further appropriations to those branches, while the fate of the U. S. Bank is uncertain.

CHANGES.—In 1828, there was but one Anti-Jackson man elected to Congress from Pennsylvania. At the recent election, we carried at least thirteen open and avowed opponents of General Jackson, viz: Banks, Denny, McKennan, Stewart, Chambers, Barnitz, Clarke, Heister, Potts, Darlington, Binney, Harper, and Watmough, and even the Jackson men elected, though nominally in favor of the Hero, were opposed to all his leading measures. The only man from this state, who voted against the renewal of the Charter of the United States' Bank, was Adam King, of York, and he has been left at home, and Mr. Barnitz elected in his stead. Six of the Anti Jackson members of Congress are elected, it is said, by a majority exceeding 12,000 votes.

Two Anti-Masons, viz: Henry Hibshman, of Lancaster, and George Smith, of Delaware, have been elected to the State Senate. In the House of Representatives, 53 or 54 are Anti-Jackson. Truly the keystone of the political arch does but little for the Hero. Revolutions once commenced, never go backwards, indeed they always advance with increased and increasing velocity—they always acquire strength as they go on. Let the friends of sound principles only do their duty, and this state will be disenthralled, entirely, on the 2d of November.

☞ OPINIONS OF MR. WIRT.—The following extract of a letter contains an interesting exposition of the sentiments of Mr. Wirt, in relation to all the great questions of our national policy. John P. Kennedy, Esq., the writer of this letter, is a zealous and distinguished advocate of the protective system, and an intimate friend of Mr. Wirt.

"During my excursion to Virginia, this summer, I have been in free communion with our friend, Mr. Wirt, and particularly upon the subjects to which you refer in your letter. You will recollect that you, once before, wrote to me on this subject, and I have felt every solicitude to fall in with, or invent some occasion in which Mr. W. might make a public avowal of his opinions on the leading question of your inquiry. His difficulty has always been this. He was nominated for the Presidency without having sought the station, and his earnest wish has always been, that if he succeeded in the election, it should be without canvassing, in the slightest degree, for the place. In conformity with this view, he has uniformly avoided writing any thing that might get into the papers, or give the world to believe that he personally solicited preferment. He has received numberless letters addressed to him directly with the view you propose, but in every case has forborne to answer them. The same objection does not apply to his friends, and he does not scruple to say to them that they may answer fully for him. Mr. W. is full and unreserved in the disclosure of all his public opinions, and there must be hundreds of persons who can speak as authoritatively on that subject as himself. He is a National Republican in the broadest doctrines of the party; a friend to the expediency and constitutionality of the Tariff—if he were not, I should certainly not support him. He is opposed to the Veto, friendly to the Bank, altogether adverse to the Virginia doctrine of State Rights, a sworn champion of the Supreme Court, zealous for the promotion of Internal Improvements, a friend of Union, and a decided foe to Nullification. In short, in point of doctrine, no man would discriminate between him and Mr. Clay. This is a summary of Mr. W's opinions, known I believe to all who associate with him. I read to him that part of your letter which referred to this subject. His reply was, 'You know my repugnance to appearing in the canvass, but upon these questions you can answer for me.' He told me that Judge Brackenridge, of your city, had written to him lately on the same subject, and I think he said he communicated his reasons for reserve to the Judge. It is now too late to use any information you might receive, and I think we may congratulate ourselves that the end is as well answered as if Mr. W. had come out fully, and I confess to you I shall think it the presage of better times, when we can have a President elected without any interference in the canvass, by himself, or personal effort to secure his success. It would be impossible, in my judgment, to select a purer man than Mr. Wirt, and, in the event of his success, which now seems, at least, probable, we shall be gratified to think it has been achieved according to the primitive notions of those who founded this government, that is, by the unaided influence and dignity of the character of the candidate.

Extract of a letter, dated

CINCINNATI, October 10, 1832.

The Cholera is raging with increased fury and fatality. I am not able to tell you the number of new cases this day; but I have heard of two that were busily employed at work, and fell down helpless. In fact I have heard of but one who has recovered. The consternation in our city is great, although very many, even at this hour, are making merry with the whole subject. Even yesterday, the Jackson folks, whose ticket was printed on blue paper, had "Cholera blue pill for the Clayites" on the head of it.

Land Lotteries.—We have mentioned that the lotteries are to be commenced on the 22d inst. The following, as we learn from Milledgeville, are the number of draws placed in the wheels, and the prizes to be awarded to them, viz:

In the Land Lottery, in which the prizes are square lots of 150 acres each: names given in, 85,000; prizes, 18,309; or about four and a half blanks to a prize.

In the Gold Lottery, in which the prizes are square lots of forty acres each: names given in, 133,000; prizes, 35,000; or nearly four blanks to a prize.

The commissioners have been industrious to prepare such a mass of tickets (which are not printed,) together with the numerical books necessary in so short a period. The wheels containing the names are of great circumference, and so weighty with the tickets that a strong man can hardly turn them. They were manufactured in the Penitentiary, and these important aids towards speedy distribution of Cherokee territory were constructed with the united help of two persons whose stubborn zeal in asserting its independence, has thus made them remote agents in its dismemberment—we mean the Missionaries. Great accuracy being requisite in the registry, it will hardly be possible to draw more than 250 or 300 names per day, so that with the latter number it will occupy seven months before the prizes are exhausted, and the lottery finished. It is proposed to draw a day alternately from the wheels of each.—Savannah Georgian, Oct. 4.

Isle of France.—A late arrival at Boston, from this place, brings accounts that the inhabitants were in a state of great excitement, business nearly suspended, and the people in direct opposition to the government, on account of an attempt on the part of the latter to enforce the laws made with reference to the system of slave amelioration, under the immediate authority of a Mr. Jeremy, who had lately arrived at the island with the appointment of Procureur General. An earnest appeal had been made to the Governor for his recal.

From the Washington Telegraph, Oct. 12.

As we said, yesterday, we believe that Wolf will be elected by a majority of some ten, or perhaps twenty thousand votes; but we shall not be surprised to learn that he has been defeated. But we repeat our belief, that Gen. Jackson will lose the vote of the State, unless Wolf is re-elected by more than thirty thousand votes; and we place our belief on the following facts:

Governor Wolf, and his personal and political friends, disapprove of the measures and policy of Gen. Jackson's administration, and are decidedly opposed to Mr. Van Buren and the Kitchen Cabinet. Many of them will unite in support of a ticket opposed to the re-election of Gen. Jackson.

Mr. Ingham, and all his personal influence, which was given to support the re-election of Mr. Wolf, will be in opposition to the Jackson ticket.

Mr. Gowan, and a large portion of the naturalized Irish, who have seceded from Jackson, were the warm personal friends of Gov. Wolf, and these, and their influence throughout the State, will be opposed to Jackson.

Many of the warmest supporters of Mr. Clay are deeply interested in the completion of the several projects of internal improvement, (canals and railways,) commenced by the State, and supported the re-election of Gov. Wolf, because it was understood that his competitor was the anti-internal improvement, as well as the anti masonic candidate. All these are opposed to Jackson.

And last, but not least, we look to the course of the American Sentinel, and those who are associated in its counsels. Will that paper support the re-election of General Jackson after all its measures and men have been assailed by the direct agency of Jackson, and Van Buren, and their pensioned presses? The Pennsylvanian, a paper got up on the patronage of the Treasury, assails Mr. Sutherland in the most vituperative manner! Will he bear all this, or will he turn upon his assailants? He is openly charged by one party with a bargain to sell the State to Martin Van Buren, while he was openly denounced by Van Buren's presses, as the most profligate of political pretenders! Will he turn upon his pursuers, or will he permit his reputation to lie under the imputations which now rest upon it?

We take it for granted, that he will act up to the emergency. And if so, the influence of the Sentinel cast into the scale of opposition, would place the vote of the State beyond dispute. But all will depend upon the policy adopted by Mr. Clay's friends, a committee of whom are to meet in Harrisburgh in a few days. We learn that it is contemplated to propose an unpledged ticket, or, in other words, a Clay ticket. We have numerous letters from the State, in which this subject is put beyond question. No other ticket than that nominated by the anti-mason party, can be elected in opposition to the Jackson ticket in Pennsylvania. And we again repeat, that that ticket, if Mr. Clay's friends unite in its support, will receive from fifteen to twenty thousand votes more than are given to Mr. Ritner.

Tennessee Legislature.—The arrangement of the Congressional Districts of the State of Tennessee according to the new apportionment, at the present session of the Legislature, has been productive of considerable excitement, and given rise to a very unpleasant occurrence. Mr. Robert Murray, a Senator from Carroll county, being displeased with the mode of districting adopted by the Bill—offered a protest to be entered on the journals in which he charged certain members of both branches of the Legislature, with "ambition, favoritism, management, and juggling" in their voting and conduct during the progress and passage of the bill. He subsequently asked leave to strike out the word juggling, which was opposed, and he withdrew the request. On the day after, a resolution was offered as to the Senator, declaring the said protest to be "slanderous and libellous" and proposing to "expel" Mr. Murray for having introduced it. The resolution lies for consideration. This occurred on the 2d inst. Our dates are to the 3d, on which the resolution was to be called up for consideration.—Balt. Amer.

Georgia Election.—Returns from Savannah and Chatham counties, received by yesterday's mail, are very largely against nullification. It will be remembered that there are two regular tickets for Congress, nominated by the Troup and Clark parties respectively—and that the mode of election is by general ticket throughout the State, not by districts—as in all the other states. There are nullifiers on both tickets, Clayton, for instance on the Troup ticket, and Newman on the Clark ticket. We perceive that the nullifiers fall behind on both tickets. We published the Augusta (Richmond) returns yesterday. The highest votes (665 and 588) on the Troup ticket were for Wilde and Wayne, (unionists) and the lowest (71 and 13) for Newman and Milton (nullifiers.) Effingham, Bryan, McIntosh, and Liberty counties also put Wilde, Wayne, and the unionists at the head of the polls. The same has taken place in Baldwin, Jones, Bibb, Washington, Jasper, and Wilkinson.

The "Georgian" furnishes lists of the counties in which popular meetings have been held, in reference to the proposed convention, with the result in each, designated. Eleven counties only passed resolutions approving of the scheme as proposed at the Athens meeting—for a convention "armed with full powers," and twenty-four determined in favor of a limited convention armed with only the customary powers, referrable back to the people, and also opposed to the doctrines of nullification. The other counties have not held meetings on the subject, or adjourned without determination, as for instance, Twiggs county.—Baltimore American.

A letter from Algiers of the 13th has been received to day. The Arabs, to the number of about 20,000 men, were assembling at Cape Motifona, where they have erected some entrenchments; they have occupied the Maison Carree, which the General-in-Chief caused to be evacuated in the month of July, and it was supposed that their attack would be anticipated by a few days. Every thing was ready to receive this attack. The infantry ready for action may be estimated at 7000 men; the cavalry at 1000; there were besides two good batteries of field artillery, and the block houses and little forts were covered with artillery and wall pieces, and furnished with a proper stock of provisions. Every soldier had received five packets of cartridges.

COTILLION PARTIES.

A. BONNAFON'S first Cotillion Party will take place on Friday next, the 26th inst., at Mr. Beale's Room, to commence at 7 o'clock P. M. and continue till 12. For Private Sale,

A beautifully situated Country Seat and Farm, near Zelienople, commanding an extensive view of a well cultivated valley of the Connequenessing, and several little growing villages. It contains about 300 acres, half of which are cleared and laid out in Pasture Fields and Meadows: a handsome Three Story Stone Dwelling House, finished in an elegant and comfortable manner, calculated for two genteel families. The Out Houses are Frame, consisting of a large Sheep Stable, 100 by 40 feet; a Barn, a Bathing, Wash and Smoke House, and other necessary buildings; a large Garden and Fruit-bearing Orchard behind the House; several never failing springs of the purest water; an excellent Coal Mine. The country, being elevated, is well known for its purity of atmosphere and consequent salubrity. Any gentleman or family wishing to retire from a crowded city, to enjoy the health, comforts, and beauties of a well situated Country Residence, could hardly find a more eligible location. The establishment might also be advantageously occupied as a Young Ladies' Academy. The distance from Pittsburgh is 25 miles; a line of stages passes, daily, within a short distance. Beaver, on the Ohio, is distant only ten miles. Further Particulars will be given by the subscriber, residing on the premises, or by Chas. L. Volz, Esq. Pittsburgh.

PIANO FORTES.

R. & W. NUNNS, Manufacturers of Grand Cabinet and Square Piano Fortes, No. 137 Broadway, New York, respectfully inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of Pittsburgh and the western towns, that they have appointed Messrs. SMITH, PETERS & Co., of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, their Agents for the sale of Piano Fortes of their make.

The extensive sale which the instruments of their manufacture have had, throughout the United States, for twelve years, has made them so well known as to preclude the necessity of their saying any thing with regard to the quality of the instruments bearing their name. They can only add that, for the five years that they exhibited Piano Fortes, at the exhibition of American Manufactures, in New York, they received the first premium, for the best instruments, and that the result of many years' experience in this branch of manufacture, added to the extended scale they are prepared to carry it on, will enable them to offer advantages to purchasers, equal to any other house in the Union.

All Piano Fortes of their make are warranted, with the privilege of returning them within a year, if there is any defect in them.

☞All orders, addressed to Messrs. Smith, Peters & Co., No. 9 Fifth street, Pittsburgh, between Wood and Market streets, will be attended to, at the Manufacturers' prices.

Edgeworth Ladies' Boarding School,

BRADDOCKSFIED, NEAR PITTSBURGH,

Will recommence its engagements on the first Monday of October next.

THE increased and increasing approbation given to this institution cannot fail to produce a corresponding zeal and energy, and a desire to secure a settled good opinion. At this time very many additions have been made, for the convenience, comfort, and well doing of the pupils.—In so large a field as is open for education, understood in its true and extensive sense, there must be room for continual culture. Unabated will be the effort to do the utmost possible to meet so responsible a charge as the care of youth, and to this effort will be added the aid experience brings.—With little observation, in every succeeding month, somewhat is seen to revise and improve.

Edgeworth Seminary has been now of several years standing, and, disclaiming all egotism, it is only the fact to say that experience enables it to offer rather an increase than a diminution of means to give satisfaction.

The health enjoyed by the inmates, and beauty of situation of Braddocksfield Mansion, are well known to visiters, but for information of strangers, it is necessary to state, that in both particulars terms too flattering cannot easily be used.

To instruct, coercive means are not employed—reference is made to the heart as well as the head. Pains are taken to inculcate, that to be great, it is an indispensable to be virtuous; and as the worth of knowledge is only to be estimated by its tendency to right action, the study of every branch, and the proportion of time given to it, will be made subservient and tributary to useful moral and religious improvement.

Sabbath day engagements must not be interrupted unnecessarily. Pupils living at a distance, or from any cause, disposed to make Braddocksfield, during the vacation, their home, are invited to do so, and no additional charge is made.

TERMS.

Admission, Tuition in English branches, viz:—Reading, Writing, Grammar, Composition, Arithmetic, Geography, and Astronomy, with use of Globes, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, and History; also Plain and Ornamental Needle Work, - - - per annum,	$130
Tuition in Music, - - - -	40
Drawing, Pencil, Crayon, and Water Colors, - -	24
Oil Painting, - - - -	40

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

DOCTOR ROBERTS'

☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn. It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek; and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

UTICA, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.
